

REINSTATEMENT OF CREDENTIALS AFTER REVOCATION FOR MISCONDUCT

Reinstatement of a credential following revocation for misconduct requires approval of the Commission on Teacher Credentialing, based on its evaluation of the rehabilitation of the person seeking reinstatement. You may request reinstatement after more than one (1) year has passed since the effective date of the revocation. Please note--you are not required to request reinstatement of a suspended credential. Suspended credentials are reinstated automatically at the end of the suspension period. If you are requesting reinstatement of a credential that you voluntarily revoked with no allegations of misconduct pending, you do not need to file a Petition for Reinstatement. You need only complete and submit a credential application form.

If you decide to apply for reinstatement, please be advised that the process may take some time. After fingerprints are submitted, it generally takes from two (2) to four (4) months to receive the necessary information from the Department of Justice and Federal Bureau of Investigation. After complete documentation has been received by the Commission, the petition will be scheduled for consideration by the Commission at the earliest possible date. Information regarding a personal appearance before the Commission will be included with notice of the hearing date.

Please be advised that the Commission cannot reinstate a life credential; instead it would issue a "clear" credential, which is subject to the current rules and regulations regarding such credentials. Further, grades 13 and 14 cannot be included on a reinstated credential because the Commission no longer has the authority to issue new credentials for these grades.

You must submit a separate application and fee for each credential you wish to have granted or reinstated.

To petition the Commission for reinstatement, you must provide the following:

1. a completed Petition for Reinstatement;
2. a declaration (a statement signed under penalty of perjury) containing information you wish the Commission to consider regarding your rehabilitation;
3. a completed application form (Form 41-4) [PDF], along with the required fee, for each credential sought to be reinstated;
4. a completed application for Character and Identification Clearance (Form 41-CIC) [PDF] and two (2) legible Live Scan Fingerprint Form (Form 41-LS) [PDF] executed by an approved government agency along with the required fingerprint fees; and
5. any other information as may be required by the Commission.

You may also submit information to the Commission which you consider relevant to your petition and your rehabilitation. The types of information you may wish to submit might include:

1. your explanation of the facts and surrounding circumstances leading to the revocation;
2. evidence of rehabilitation such as progress reports if enrolled in a program, verification of completion of a rehabilitation program, probation reports, and similar materials;
3. recent letters, reference and character, of recommendation addressed to the Commission from responsible persons acknowledging the misconduct;
4. school evaluations or current work performance reports showing the nature and quality of your professional performance;
5. your work history since the revocation, including the names of employers and type of work;
6. any civic activities engaged in following the revocation; and
7. court documents indicating the reduction or dismissal of criminal convictions;

You will be afforded an opportunity to present any evidence which you feel may assist the Commission in evaluating your petition for reinstatement. Credential application fees are not refundable.
